

2018 DIABETES CLINICAL PRACTICE GUIDELINE: OVERVIEW OF CHANGES AND UPDATES

PRESENTED BY: DIABETES CANADA

July 18, 2018

10:00 am–11:30 am

Presented By: Jenny-Leigh Solomon.

Jenny-Leigh completed her undergraduate degree in Health Promotions in Sudbury, ON and is currently completing an online Master of Public Health Degree from the University of Saskatchewan. Jenny-Leigh just recently joined the Diabetes Canada Team for a summer practicum placement as the Education and Outreach Coordinator where her primary focuses on raising diabetes awareness and providing education.

This Telehealth session will consist of a brief overview of the updates to the new 2018 Clinical Practice Guidelines, including format changes, new chapters, and appendix updates. We will also highlight the benefits of becoming a member of the Professional Section of Diabetes Canada with instructions on how to sign up on the website. There will also be an introduction to the new CPG App, including the benefits, how to download and navigate.

Learning Objectives:

- Changes to format
- Quick chapter highlights
- Tools and appendix updates
- Membership info
- CPG App introduction
