

Session 10 in the Harm Reduction Series

This series is supported through a partnership between the First Nations Telehealth Network, Indigenous Services Canada's First Nations and Inuit Health Branch, and Alberta Health Services

To access this session via audio line please call 1-888-999-3356 and use the pass code 14001. The audio line will be available to access 5 minutes prior to the start of the session.

Live stream is also available for those who can not attend via videoconference.

Register online at www.fntn.ca
Please note: If you are attending from an AHS site please register directly on their scheduling website at www.ischeduler.ca

First Nations Telehealth Network

1-888-999-3356

vhhelp@fntn.ca

www.fntn.ca

HARM REDUCTION SERIES

Clarity on Cannabis: Cannabis 101

August 22, 2019
10:00—11:30

Join us for the tenth session in the Harm Reduction Series as we discuss the basics of non-medical cannabis, identify key health evidence, and discuss harm reduction messages related to cannabis use. This session will also explore what legal cannabis means for young people, including tools to support meaningful conversations and other useful resources for individuals, families and communities.

PRESENTED BY: Michelle Fry, M.Sc., CEP. Michelle is a Program Consultant with Alberta Health Services

MISSED A SESSION? All previous sessions in the Harm Reduction Series are available to view on the First Nations Telehealth Network (www.fntn.ca) You can access the videos on the Library or within the Harm Reduction Series page.

Register for videoconference or live stream online at www.fntn.ca

