Introduction to New Privacy Training Modules for First Nation Health Centers and Nursing Stations

May 3rd, 2023
1:30-3:00 MST

This session will introduce the new Privacy Training Modules available to all First Nation Health Centers and Nursing Stations. It will provide information on how clinicians and their staff can access the modules and the importance of privacy in the workplace.

Learning Outcomes:

- Participants will be able to demonstrate how to access and navigate the modules for themselves and their staff.
- Participants will be able to identify and discuss the importance of privacy in the workplace.
- Participants will be able to develop a plan to use the Privacy Training Module and will allow custodians to meet their HIA obligations for training.

Speaker:

Jeff MacKay is the Driector of Marketing and Training at Brightsquid Secure Communications Corp. Since 2017, Jeff has helped improve privacy compliance and breach prevention at hundreds of healthcare organizations across Alberta with the development and delivery of training courses, conferences, and support programs. A transplant from the east coast, Jeff enjoys the western wilderness with his three kids every chance they get.

Target Audience: Custodians, affiliates and Privacy Officers of Health Information in First Nation Centers and Nursing Stations
