

Indigenous Womens Program Presentation at the Elizabeth Fry Society of Northern Alberta

July 12, 2023

10:00-11:00am MST

Join Destiny Desjarlais, as she will be speaking about the Indigenous Women Program that she currently facilitates year-round at the Elizabeth Fry Society. She will be discussing the many roles and support and services that she provides to the female population that are of Indigenous descent.

Learning Outcomes:

- How the Indigenous Womens Program can support and provide culturally-based services to women, girls and gender-diverse folks that are living in the urban community
- How this program is designed to bring culture back to the lives of women, girls and gender-diverse folks who are disconnected from their cultural identity
- Learn about how this program is built on cultural values and traditions to help prevent criminalization for our most vulnerable population

Speakers:

Destiny Desjarlais, Addictions and Community Service Diploma, Elizabeth Fry Society of Northern Alberta, Indigenous Reintegration and Outreach Support Coordinator

Target Audience:
Indigenous women, girls and gender-diverse folks
