

Affirming Trans Youth: Mythbusting with Outloud St. Albert

November 30, 2023

10:00-11:30am MST

A lot of people have questions about what affirming care looks like when it comes to the trans community, especially for youth. Join us for a session separating fact from fiction surrounding supporting trans kids

Learning Outcomes:

- Develop an understanding of the common myths surrounding care for trans youth and be able to debunk them

Speakers:

Bekah Marcellus, (she/they), Community Outreach Worker at Outloud St. Albert, Bachelor of Arts in Linguistic Anthropology. During their undergraduate degree, they worked with SnPink'tn (the Penticton Indian Band) on a community led language revitalization project, and currently support a number of Two Spirit youth

Target Audience: Primarily for those supporting trans youth (eg. Parents, teachers, etc.), but other allies and trans folks themselves will hopefully learn some good facts and scripts to use when addressing disinformation.
