Fraud Intervention - Be Informed. Be Prepared.

December 11, 2023
1:30-3:00pm MST

Providing the public with the knowledge and power to protect themselves against scams thereby eliminating, or at least minimizing, any chance of becoming a victim of fraud related offences. We will go through the different types of frauds we are seeing these days and how to recognize them.

Learning Outcomes:

- Awareness to the type of fraud out there now, specifically targeting seniors.
- How to recognize when you aren't dealing with a legitimate business/ Government entity.
- What the Police can and can't do when it comes to fraud.
- What to do if you think you have become a victim of fraud.

Speakers:

Detective Jason Lapointe, Financial Crimes Section, Edmonton Police Service, Metis Nation of Alberta member. Jason has 22 years as a police officer with the Edmonton Police Services & RCMP. As an RCMP member, and a member of the MNA. He often works as the the liaison officer with various nations and settlements that they served throughout central and northern Alberta

Target Audience: The general public; Specifically, our senior community, will benefit from this information. Knowledge is power!
