

Guided Divinely: Report of the Alberta Region Healthy & Cultural Support

Workers

May 31, 2024

1:30-3:00pm MST

The purpose of this session is to inform senior health technicians on the work of the Alberta Region health and cultural support workers, and to solicit feedback on a grassroots report that was generated from a November 2023 workforce gathering.

Learning Outcomes:

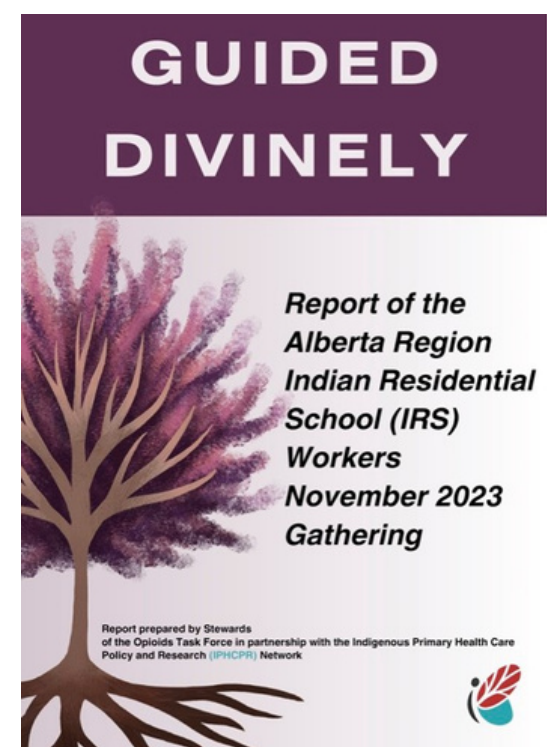

- A better understanding of the work undertaken by health and cultural supports
- The self-identified priority of the Alberta-Region workforce as a whole
- Participating in the strengthening of the draft report

Speakers:

Leanne Sleight - Leanne is the coordinator of Siksika Health Services' Traditional Wellness Health Support Program and has been a Resolution Health Support Worker since August 2008.

Dr. Rita Henderson - Dr. Rita Isabel Henderson is an Associate Professor in Family Medicine with a joint appointment in Community Health Sciences in the Cumming School of Medicine, University of Calgary. Her research focuses primarily on Indigenous health, ranging from population health research to clinical intervention research, to the integration of these two.

Nathan Sunday - Nathan is a member of the Indigenous Services Canada - Alberta Region Mental Wellness Team and the Focal Point for the Trauma-Informed Health and Cultural Support Program

Target Audience: Health Technicians and Trauma-Informed Health and Cultural Support Program Managers
