This session will review what Restorative Justice (RJ) is, the benefits, common elements, process, and who can participate

Learning Outcomes:
- Benefits of RJ,
- Elements needed to participate,
- Myths about RJ,

Speakers:

Nicole Chouinard - Manager, RCMP Support, Victim Services and Restorative Justice. I work within the Regional Municipality of Wood Buffalo and with in the region we support and work with 8 First Nation and 5 Metis Nations/Locals. Over the past three years I have had the honour of traveling more frequently to the rural communities to support the implementation of Restorative Justice and learning what each community needs are so we can adjust the program to support each area as community support is key to success of the programing . Fort Chipewyan was the first community that was support to implement the Restorative Justice process.

Target Audience: Anyone who has an interest in learning more, community members, social profits, legal supports, police.
