

Treatment Center Learning Series: Session #2

Virtual Services for Addictions and Mental Health- best practices and lessons learned

April 28, 2021

10:00-11:30

Virtual meetings have evolved to become a normal way of life. Expanding beyond geography, virtual platforms are enabling addictions and mental health services to literally meet clients where they are at. This session will explore several different Indigenous models of virtual care, their best practices, and lessons learned along the way.

Learning Objective:

Participants will learn about a variety of virtual care models and how these services are effectively meeting client needs. Participants will be able to identify key best practices that contribute to the development of an effective and professional virtual mental health and addictions service. Participants will be aware of resources available to support their community in developing innovative virtual services.

Speakers:

Dale Steinhauer - Health Director for Tribal Chiefs Ventures Inc.

Jo-Anne Packham - Executive Director for Mark Amy Wood Buffalo Treatment Centre

Andy Alook - Bigstone Health Commission

Target Audience:
Health Directors, Community
Mental Health Workers,
Nurses, Community
NNADAP Workers,
