Men's Real Talk: Break the Cycle of Domestic Abuse

May 21, 2024

10:30am-12:00pm MST

Men's Real Talk webinars are available to anyone interested in learning how to recognize domestic abuse, understand its impact, and develop comfort in responding to domestic abuse disclosures. We will specifically discuss the invisibility of men's experiences of domestic abuse, and how we can do a better job in our communities of both providing support and accountability for men.

Please note that this session will not be recorded or uploaded to our website.

Learning Outcomes:

- Participants will learn how to recognize domestic abuse
- Participants will learn about the common myths and misconceptions around domestic abuse
- Participants will learn how to support someone if they know or suspect they are experiencing abuse
- Participants will talk through men's experience
- Participants will learn about where and how people can refer to local resources

Speakers:

Trevor Williams, Sagesse, Men's Engagement Coordinator
