

Building Resilience: Understanding and Responding to Child Abuse

June 12, 2024

10:00-11:30am MST

Explore the 4 Rs - Recognizing, Responding, Reporting Child Abuse, and fostering Resiliency. This session provides practical guidance on identifying signs of abuse, responding effectively to disclosures, and promoting resilience in children.

Learning Outcomes:

- Participants will learn to recognize signs of abuse
- Participants will learn how to respond empathetically to disclosures
- Participants will gain an understanding of the legal obligations for reporting
- Participants will learn how to implement supportive strategies promoting resilience

Speakers:

Cheryl Patterson, BA, brings over a decade of experience in trauma-informed care and program development, focusing on child advocacy. As the Manager at Chinook Child and Youth Advocacy Centre, Cheryl leads efforts to support child and youth victims of abuse and their families, collaborating with partner agencies like Children's Services and Law Enforcement. With expertise in working with diverse populations, including Indigenous communities, Cheryl ensures the delivery of integrated and culturally sensitive services to address the complex needs of vulnerable children and youth.
