

Education Session: Alberta Newborn Screening Program for Community Health Representatives & Maternal Child Health Workers

July 30, 2024

10:30-11:30am MDT

Join this session to learn about the benefits of blood spot screening and risks of not screening. This session will also provide some helpful resources to give babies the best start in life!

Learning Outcomes:

- Blood spot screening is very important
- The conditions screened are treatable
- Easiest way to get the baby screened is in the hospital where the mother gives birth
- Best time is when the baby is between 1 and 3 days old

Speakers:

Manu Chaturvedi, Program Coordinator - Newborn Screening Programs, Alberta Health Services. Based on literature survey on Barriers in Accessing Healthcare by First Nations Communities and in consultation with Indigenous Wellness Core, Manu has developed parent resources for First Nations communities.

Target Audience: Maternal Child Health Workers and Community Health Representatives; Parents are Welcome to Attend as well
