

Bringing Back the Power of Moon Time

November 6, 2024

10:00-11:30am MST

Join Moon Time Connections to discuss the movement towards period equity for Indigenous Nations in the north, and learn about the Moon Time Facilitator training program they provide; helping bring back the power of our Moon Time and breaking the colonial barriers and stigma brought to these lands.

Learning Outcomes:

- Learn about what period equity looks like in Northern Canada, based on the research paper released by MTC and the University of Saskatchewan in March 2024
- Understand who MTC is and what they do to support period equity in the North
- How people can get involved or apply for products
- Learn about the Moon Time Facilitator Training Program, the Resources provided for the training, how to join, and what you can bring back to your Community from the training

Speakers:

Nicole White, a Metis woman from Treaty 6 is the founder of Moon Time Connections. She runs the Saskatchewan Chapter of MTC and is a registered Social Worker.

Veronica Brown is a settler, living in Treaty 13 and runs the Ontario Chapter of MTC. She is a Professor of Indigenous Knowledge program at Centennial College. Both Nicole and Veronica support in the education and distribution programs within MTC

Target Audience: Any Indigenous Community member or non-Indigenous community member living and working with the Indigenous Nations
