

Preparing For The Upcoming Launches of The Local Food Infrastructure Fund - Large Scale Projects in January & Small Scale Projects in Fall of 2025

December 5th, 2024

1:30-3:00pm MST

This session will provide potential applicants to the Local Food Infrastructure Fund program with key program information. The information will allow organizations to identify if they are eligible to apply and if the project they would be presenting is eligible for funding. There will also be time available for questions and answers from program staff.

Learning Outcomes:

- Participants will understand the program parameters
- Participants will understand their organizational and project eligibility
- Participants will know what the steps are on how to apply

Speakers:

Bénédicte Lamoureux - Bénédicte has been the co-manager of the LFIF program at AAFC since it's inception in 2019, managing all of the previous 6 intakes of the program

Wendy Street - Wendy has been the co-manager of the LFIF program since 2020, managing the last 5 intakes of the program

Robert Ransom - Robert is the manager of the Indigenous Pathfinder Service and the Indigenous Engagement and Partnership Office at AAFC. Robert is a proud member of the Algonquins of Pikwakanagan and has worked in the government on Indigenous issues for the past ten years with AAFC, ISC and Statistics Canada
