

Supporting Someone After a Suicide Attempt/Death

February 4, 2025

1:30-3:00pm MST

This session will explore helpful things to say to someone after a suicide attempt or death as well as what not to say and why.

*Please note that this session will not be recorded or uploaded to our website.

Learning Outcomes:

- With greater communication around difficult topics we, as a community, can change the stigma around suicide, death and grief

Speakers:

Dawne Adkins, RSW & Certified Grief Recovery Specialist at The Outreach Centre in Red Deer, AB. In this role she offers education and information regarding suicide prevention, postvention and grief support throughout Central Alberta. Recently she has worked with Montana First Nation as well as Samson Cree Nation, Sunchild and O'Chiese in the past

Target Audience: Anyone who may find themselves offering support professionally or personally
