A FASD Informed Approach for Addiction Treatment and Recovery

April 10, 2025
1:30-3:00pm MDT

The session will provide an exploration of research, promising practices, and resources for FASD Informed Care, addiction treatment and recovery. The session will be grounded in Aventa's approach to FASD prevention via compassionate and non-judgmental interventions with pregnant women, and women who may become pregnant, and FASD Informed strategies for working with women, who have or may have FASD, within an addiction treatment setting.

Learning Outcomes:
- Introduction to Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD)
- Strategies to support pregnant women and women with FASD seeking addiction treatment
- Aventa's FASD informed addiction treatment programming and outcomes
- Resources to support development of FASD and Trauma Informed Practice

Speakers:
Capri Rasmussen, BSW RSW, has been a Registered Social Worker working in Calgary for the past 29 years. Capri is a passionate Social Worker who values compassionate, evidence-based, trauma and culturally informed care. Since 2013, Capri has been in her current role as the Clinical Administration Manager at Aventa Centre of Excellence for Women with Addictions.

Target Audience: The target audience is health and social service professionals and any one interested in working with people with FASD within an addiction treatment setting
