

Be a Wise OWL: Learn More About Fraud Prevention and Protection

March 19, 2025

1:30-3:00pm MDT

Join us for an informative session that will teach you how to protect yourself and your loved ones from fraud using the WISE OWL approach (Working together, Informing and educating, Safeguarding citizens, Empowering through knowledge). Learn about current fraud trends, common scam techniques, and practical steps to enhance your security and awareness.

Learning Outcomes:

- Understand and identify different types of fraud and their warning signs
- Learn to apply the WISE OWL method to evaluate suspicious communications and situations
- Master practical strategies to protect your personal and financial information
- Know exactly what steps to take if you encounter fraud

Speakers:

Presented by a representative of Alberta Rural Crime Watch Association, a trusted organization that's been keeping rural communities safe since 1978. Starting as local community members acting as extra "eyes and ears" for the RCMP, they've grown into a province-wide network of volunteers who work alongside RCMP detachments. They're passionate about preventing crime through education, awareness, and bringing communities together
