

Online Safety, App Risks, Myths & Facts

February 26, 2026

10:00-11:30am MT

This session will provide a brief overview of sexual exploitation, online authenticity, and what sextortion, sexting, and catfishing are. This session will also discuss what to do if those happen, App information, and the pros and cons of AI.

Learning Outcomes:

- To create better understanding about safety concerns in different apps
- Encourage conversations between youth and caregivers about the online world
- Education is the best prevention

Speakers:

Madison Keller - PSCEA Outreach Worker McMan, COPE

Program. Madison has been with McMan for many years, and has been with the COPE Program for almost 2 years. She grew up in a foster home where her parents were the foster parents and have lived with over 140 higher risk youth. Safety has always been a topic in her household from a very young age. Her siblings are mostly First Nations, and she has walked the world with them for almost 30 years. It is mainly through First Nations peoples that she has been educated through a First Nations lense and in ceremony, this is her heart.
