Building Community Connections: Understanding enCompass Services and Their Impact

December 8, 2027

10:00-11:30am MT

This presentation will provide an overview of enCompass Community Safety Agency and the wide range of services we offer to support individuals and families across Edmonton. Participants will gain a better understanding of how our programs address challenges related to housing instability, addiction, justice involvement, family violence, and other complex barriers, while exploring opportunities for collaboration and referral.

Learning Outcomes:

- Gain a greater awareness of the services and programs offered by enCompass
- Better understand the populations supported by enCompass and the barriers they may experience
- Learn how individuals can access and apply for enCompass services
- Identify opportunities for partnership, collaboration, and coordinated support within the community

Speakers:

Blake Harris - Manager, Client Journey & Successes, enCompass Community Safety Agency

Target Audience: This session is intended for professionals, service providers, community organizations, and nonprofit staff who work with individuals experiencing housing instability, addiction, family violence, justice involvement, and other complex barriers to well-being
