

APRIL 21, 2016 1:00 – 2:00 PM TAKE HOME NALOXONE IN YOUR TREATY AREA (7)

Featuring Dr. Chris Sarin (FNIHB Lead of Fentanyl Response) and supported by David Turner (AHS Aboriginal Health Program) and Trish Hanson (Alberta Health, Take Home Naloxone Program). This session will include:

- Targeted information for Treaty 7
- Discussion to increase understanding of Take Home Naloxone
- Identification of points of access
- Identification of steps communities can take to increase access

Target Audience: All those involved with mental health, addictions, and preventative programs on reserve in Alberta, including Health Directors, NNADAP staff, Front Line Workers, leadership and other band staff.

SUBMIT ANY QUESTIONS, BEFORE AND DURING THE SESSION, TO VCHELP@FIRSTNATIONSTH.CA

FENTANYL INFORMATION SERIES

SESSION 2B OF 4

PURPOSE: TO PROVIDE UP TO DATE INFORMATION TO FIRST NATIONS ON HOW BEST TO RESPOND TO THE ISSUE OF FENTANYL AND OTHER OPIOIDS ON RESERVE

SERIES MODERATOR WILL BE DR. CHRIS SARIN, COMMUNITY MEDICINE SPECIALIST – FNIHB-AB. SUPPORTED BY DAVID TURNER- AHS ABORIGINAL HEALTH PROGRAM, AND TRISH HANSON ALBERTA HEALTH TAKE HOME NALOXONE PROGRAM

THIS SERIES HAS BEEN DEVELOPED AND FACILITATED BY REPRESENTATIVES INVOLVED IN THE FIRST NATIONS/ABORIGINAL RESPONSE TO THE FENTANYL CRISIS. REPRESENTATIVES COME FROM ALBERTA HEALTH SERVICES, ALBERTA HEALTH, FNIHB, AND TSAG

REGISTER TODAY ON THE FIRST NATIONS TELEHEALTH PORTAL

WWW.FIRSTNATIONSTH.CA

